Youth Spa Program (ages 12-17)

Currently introduced on select ships, this program allows kids and their parents to experience luxurious body and beauty treatments together on port days at discounted rates in the ship's Spa Carnival health and fitness center. Packages, which are available in mother/daughter and father/son combinations, include hair and nail treatments, health evaluations and foot and scalp massages.

ExerSeas (ages 2-14)

ExerSeas is a recreational fitness program designed to encourage kids to get out and play through intense physical activity. The program encompasses a diversity of fun, supervised outdoor activities, everything from obstacle courses and basketball to popular games such as "steal the bacon" and "capture the flag".

A-B-Seas (ages 2-8)

A-B-Seas is a new reading program in which the youth counselors read popular children's books aloud to parents and kids in the ships' libraries. The program also includes nightly bedtime stories in the children's playrooms. Following the readings, parents and kids, with the aid of the youth counselors, present their own creative interpretations of the stories through puppet shows, skits and other group activities. Also planned for this program are writing workshops where kids can hone their writing skills and express their creativity while penning short stories and essays.

H2Ocean (ages 2-11)

A new science program, H2Ocean features a wide variety of fun, hands-on science projects. The program allows kids to partake in such activities as making their own ice cream and creating custom-made helicopters and miniature hovercrafts.

EduCruise (2-11)

The EduCruise program has been expanded to include more interactive projects focusing on the cultures, landmarks, history and geography of the destinations to which the ships sail. Through this program, kids can make their own "dream catchers" popularized by various Native American cultures and create colorful maps of various Caribbean nations.

Art Program (2-11)

In the works is a new art program, "Water Colors" that goes beyond typical arts and crafts, kids can create their own artistic masterpieces – papermache, oil paintings and watercolors, for example, while learning techniques employed by professional artists.

Sea Notes (2-14)

A new music program that introduces kids to different musical instruments and genres.
